Cambridge Secondary 1
English as a Second Language Curriculum Framework
(with codes)
Welcome to the Cambridge Secondary 1 English as a Second Language Curriculum Framework.

These frameworks provide a comprehensive set of progressive learning objectives for learners of English as a Second Language. They are based on the Council of Europe’s Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), which is used widely both within and beyond Europe to map learners’ progression in English. The curriculum frameworks are divided into five strands: Reading, Writing, Use of English, Listening and Speaking. In line with the CEFR, learning outcomes in each strand for each successive stage are defined in terms of what learners should be able to do in English. This framing of learning objectives as a progressive can-do sequence should encourage the use of learning-centred, activity-based approaches by teachers in the implementation of the curriculum frameworks.

Learner progression in each strand within the curriculum frameworks is mapped in terms of the common reference levels in the CEFR.

An indication of the level learners are expected to achieve at the end of each year group is given on page 1. The use of low, mid and high categories reflects the fact that progression across CEFR levels may typically take two or three years in each strand.
It is envisaged that learners will progress in terms of the CEFR across the Speaking, Listening and Use of English strands in the curriculum at a marginally faster pace. The main reason for this is the primacy of modified oral input in early years second language teaching where learners may not have sufficient literacy skills in their own language to develop English through reading and writing. This can be further complicated for learners whose first languages are non-Roman script languages – involving the mapping of new foreign sounds to equally foreign symbols. Although such early literacy considerations may vary within different learning contexts, what remains constant in the pedagogic approach within the curriculum framework is that the teacher’s use of structured talk will be the key facilitating factor in supporting early primary learning and that all learning in the classroom will be characterised by high-quality interaction in which the teacher seeks to encourage the active use of English by learners in completing all tasks. This focus on modified oral input – which enables learners to focus on forms as well as meanings – will support the slightly faster incremental development of Speaking, Listening and Use of English skills across the curriculum.

The assessment framework (see table below) is designed to support the implementation of the curriculum framework by providing teachers and learners with motivational end-of-stage goals and to help teachers, learners and parents monitor progress being made. There are end-of-year progression tests for all stages from Stage 7 to Stage 9.

The Cambridge Secondary English as a Second Language curriculum framework has been reorganised using new codes for 2016 and onwards. The learning objectives have been reorganised under codes that have a direct link to reporting.

As a result of the reorganisation the curriculum framework codes for the Reading, Writing, Use of English and Listening learning objectives have been renumbered and reordered. The curriculum framework codes for the Speaking learning objectives are unchanged for 2016.
The updated codes refer to the following sub-strands:

Uc code (Collocation: words that are typically used together) forms part of Ug (General vocabulary). Therefore Ug is used to denote both Uc and Ug learning objectives.

Ul code (Language range and appropriacy) forms part of Ug (General vocabulary), Uf (Grammatical forms) and Ut (Sentence structure). Therefore Ug, Uf and Ut are used to denote Ul, Ug, Uf and Ut learning objectives.
